Project Controls Institute, Australia is entitled to charge fees for services provided to students undertaking training and assessment that leads to a nationally recognised outcome. These charges are generally for items such as tuition fees, course materials, textbooks, student services, and training and assessment services, bank charges if any. This Policy outlines the details regarding the above.

As per schedule 6, Clause 7.3 of Standard 7 of Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 Project Controls Institute will be responsible for protecting the fees prepaid by individual learners, or prospective learners.

Scope

This policy applies to all current & prospective students at Project Controls Institute, Australia.

Policy

This policy applies to all current & prospective students at Project Controls Institute, Australia.

Information about fees

- The Tuition fee is preferred to be collected according to an agreed payment schedule.
- Project Controls Institute will not demand or accept more than $1500 from any local students in advance.

Fee information relevant to a course is outlined in detail in the Student Agreement and summarised on the Course Outline as well as the RTO's website. In compliance with Clause 5.3 of the Standards, detailed fee information is provided before enrolment or commencement of training, whichever is first.

Fee information includes:

- All costs for the course including any materials fee, enrolment fee, etc.
- Any other costs payable to the RTO including costs for recognition of prior learning if applicable.
- Payment terms and conditions include deposits, refunds, and payment plans if applicable.

The Student Agreement and the Student Handbook which are provided before enrolment include this Fees and Refunds Policy and inform the student of their consumer rights. Students are asked to sign the Student Agreement in acknowledgment of the terms and conditions of the enrolment and this policy.

Where an employer is paying for a student's course, an Employer Agreement will be provided at the time of enrolment outlining the total fees, payment terms, and schedule of payments applicable.

No cooling-off period applies as Project Controls Institute, Australia does not use unsolicited consumer agreements (such as telemarketing, door-to-door selling, or direct approach marketing in public places).

Course fee inclusions

Course fees as applicable to each course are detailed in the Student Agreement and include:

- All the training and assessment as well as educational support services are required for students to achieve the qualification or course in which they are enrolling within the attempts allowed.
- Where a student fails to achieve a satisfactory outcome after three attempts at an assessment task, the student will need to re-enroll in the unit or units in question and will be charged a pro-rata course fee based on the number of units required to be undertaken.
- Learning materials for each student unless otherwise stated on the Course Outline.
- Issuance of one set of certification documents including the test amur (certificate) and record of results and/or a Statement of Attainment (in the case of withdrawal or partial completion).

Fee Policy

Course fees do not include:

- Any optional textbooks and materials that may be recommended but not required to complete a course.
- Replacement textbooks if original copies are lost or misplaced. Costs for replacement textbooks are outlined in the Student Agreement.
- Stationery such as paper and pens or other personal use items such as computers or internet access that may be required to complete homework tasks.
- Printing costs (if required).
- Re-issuance of AQF certification documents. Re-issuance or additional copies of these documents will attract a fee of $50 per document plus the cost of postage if required.

Project Controls Institute, Australia cannot guarantee that students will complete the course in which they enrol regardless of whether all fees due have been paid.

Please refer to the fee schedule for a detailed schedule of fee.

Payments

Payments can be accepted by electronic transfer, cheque, money order, or in person at our head office.

Students who are experiencing difficulty in paying their fees are invited to call our office to make alternative arrangements for payment during their period of difficulty.

Debts may be referred to a debt collection agency where fees are more than 40 days past due.

Project Controls Institute, Australia reserves the right to suspend the provision of training and/or other services until fees are brought up to date. Students with long-term outstanding accounts may be withdrawn from their course if payments have not been received and no alternative arrangements for payment have been made.

Refunds for fee-for-service students

All course fees for fee-for-service students include an Enrolment Fee (or non-refundable deposit) which will only be refunded where Project Controls Institute, Australia is required to cancel a course before it commences due to insufficient numbers or for other unforeseen circumstances.

A student not achieving the qualification or unit/s in which they enrolled due to exhausting their attempts at assessment, does not entitle the student to a refund.

RPL application fees are non-refundable.

Students who withdraw from a course may seek a refund or a reduction in fees owing by making an application for a refund in writing using the Refund Application Form. The application must include the details and reason for the request. Students who have not completed a Withdrawal Form are not eligible for consideration of a refund or reduction in fees.

In the unlikely event that Project Controls Institute, Australia or any third parties responsible for delivering training and assessment on its behalf, are unable to deliver the course or any portion of the course as promised, the student will be issued with a refund for the course or portion, of the course, that was not provided.

This includes the following situations:

- Where Project Controls Institute, Australia or any third parties delivering training and assessment on its behalf ceases to operate.
- Where Project Controls Institute, Australia ceases to deliver the course in which a student is enrolled, and the agreement is terminated.
- Where Project Controls Institute, Australia needs to make a change to the terms of the student agreement. (Such as the way the course is delivered or conditions of enrolment) and a new agreement cannot be reached with the student to account for changes.

Fee Policy

In any of the above situations, Project Controls Institute, Australia will automatically conduct a refund assessment of all affected students and issue the refunds due to the Fee Payer accordingly. In these cases, there is no need for a student to make an individual application for a refund. Refunds will be issued within 28 business days.

The refund assessment will be based on reviewing the services and/or materials provided to the student and the costs incurred by Project Controls Institute, Australia in the provision such as:

- Textbooks or other materials provided.
- Training provided (e.g., number of meetings/classes/visits etc.)
- Individual support provided by the trainer/assessor.
- Assessments marked or feedback provided (including RPL)

The outcome of the refund assessment will be provided in writing to the student’s registered address within 28 business days, outlining the decision and reasons for the decision along with any applicable refund or adjustment note. Refund decisions can be appealed following our Complaints and Appeals Policy & Procedure.

Recording and payment of refunds

- Refunds will be paid to the person or organisation that made the original payment.
- Refund assessments can be appealed following our Complaints and Appeals Policy & Procedure.
- Records of refund assessments and issuance of refunds will be stored securely on the student’s file and in our accounts-keeping system.
